AIMS AND SCOPE

Advances in Women's Studies is a scientific, open access, online-only periodical published in accordance with independent, unbiased, and double-blinded peer-review principles. The journal is official publication of the Atatürk University, Women's Studies Application and Research Center and published biannually in June and December. The publication languages of the journal are Turkish and English.

Advances in Women's Studies aims to contribute to the literature by publishing manuscripts at the highest scientific level in research and studies covering all aspects of the women's studies. The journal publishes original articles, reviews, care reports, letters to the editors, and book reviews that are prepared in accordance with ethical guidelines. The scope of the journal includes but not limited to including sociology, philosophy, history, language and literature, art, cultural studies, law, political science, economy, health, play, theater, movie, and other related areas.

The target audience of the journal includes academicians, researchers, professionals, students, related professional and academic bodies and institutions.

Advances in Women's Studies currently indexed in DOAJ and China National Knowledge Infrastructure (CNKI).

The editorial and publication processes of the journal are shaped in accordance with the guidelines of the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE), World Association of Medical Editors (WAME), Council of Science Editors (CSE), Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), European Association of Science Editors (EASE), and National Information Standards Organization (NISO). The journal is in conformity with the Principles of Transparency and Best Practice in Scholarly Publishing (doaj.org/bestpractice).
